

ER

Evan - FYI
95

Executive Registry

85- 2479

THE GEORGE
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Washington, D.C. 20052 / School of Government and Business Administration

Office of the Dean
(202) 676-6380

May 31, 1985

[Redacted]
Executive Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

STAT

Dear [Redacted]

STAT

I want to thank you for the warm hospitality offered by the Department of Science and Technology of the Central Intelligence Agency to the alumni of the Contemporary Executive Development seminar conducted by George Washington University. This is a group of graduates of a senior executive development program which was initiated in 1982. The group hosted on May 23 consisted of executives and senior managers from twenty-eight different Federal agencies and departments. They all were very impressed with the fine program and the hospitality of your Agency.

We are also particularly indebted to Evan Hineman, the Deputy Director for Science and Technology, for his excellent address to the group and to [Redacted] (a graduate of our program) for his hard work and detailed planning which ensured the success of the evening. Others who acted as hosts and security guides added to the warm reception.

STAT
STAT

I am certain that this event provided an excellent opportunity for a large number of senior Federal public servants to gain a greater insight into the fine work performed by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Sincerely,

Norma Maine Loeser, D.B.A.
Dean

L-305